FFL Shipping & Standard Shipping

FFL Items

There are some products listed on our website that require Bilson Arms to have a Federal Firearms License (FFL) on file to ship. A serial number is stamped on these items, and these items are regulated by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms & Explosives (BATF). Regulated items are firearms, receivers (Lower & Barreled), frames, actions, and suppressors.

It is the buyer's responsibility to be in Compliance with all Federal, State, and Local laws in the buyer's area.

There is a $10 FFL processing fee charged by Bilson Arms on orders containing FFL items. Although, this fee is per order, not per item.

Usually, when Bilson Arms ships FFL required items, it is done via FedEx. Buyers must be at least 21 years of age to receive FFL items.

FFL Ordering Process for Firearms, Receivers, Frames, & Actions

1. If you hold a current Federal Firearms license and place an order for FFL items, Bilson Arms will need to have a clearly signed copy of your current FFL. All orders will remain on hold until we can obtain a clearly signed copy of your current FFL by email, fax, or mail. Once this information is received and/or verified, the order will be processed and shipped.
2. If you do not hold a Federal Firearms license, Bilson Arms can provide a Showcased Dealer listing to choose from and is the easiest way to complete your purchase. Bilson Arms Showcased Dealers have already agreed to perform transfers for FFL items purchased from Bilson Arms. There is no need to contact a Bilson Arms Showcased Dealer. Just select the dealer on the Bilson Arms website, pay for your items, and it automatically ships to the dealer.
3. Alternatively, if you choose to go through an FFL holder who is not a Bilson Arms Showcased Dealer, you'll have to contact the FFL holder to coordinate a transfer of the FFL required items. FFL holders usually charge a fee for performing transfers. A PDF version of a clearly signed FFL may be emailed to us at billy@bilsonarms.com. They may also fax a copy to 337.330.0066. If they choose to mail a copy of their FFL to Bilson Arms, they can send it to: Bilson Arms, LLC 1258 Petroleum Pkwy Broussard, Louisiana 70518 Bilson Arms will need verbal or written permission from the FFL holder for you to use their FFL for the transfer. Make sure that the FFL holder references your name and Bilson Arms order number and/or customer account number if you know them.
4. Once we have a clearly signed copy of the FFL holder's current FFL and we get it associated with your order, the order will be processed and shipped to the address listed on the FFL.
5. Once the items arrive, go to the FFL holder to complete the background check and transfer process and pay any applicable fees and taxes. Check your local laws about what documents or identification you'll need to take with you to complete the transfer.

Shipping Methods

Our current shipping method is via UPS. Costs are calculated at check out and any items the ATF considers a firearm, (rifles, 100% lower receivers, etc) MUST be shipped overnight. NO EXCEPTIONS! These items are shipped only to the FFL you have chosen and only after we have received a copy of their license. We will contact them at the time you purchase the gun or gun part considered a gun. At check out on the website, you will put in the address and name of the FFL. WE can then contact them while running the background check.

All other items the consumer will have a choice in delivery such as ground, 2-day, overnight, etc.

NOTE: The website defaults to using an FFL address. Should you be purchasing items that do not require an FFL's involvement, you must click the box that states this or your order will not go through properly.
